AT THE AUDITORIUM. Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

At the Auditorium a vaudeville and moving picture bill full of fun and entertainment was played to large houses Monday afternoon and evening From the time the colored merrymak-ers, the two Jolly Prices, came on with ers, the two Johy Frices, came on with their funny medley of jokes, songs and farce-tragedy, winning curtain calls, each turn was a hit. With a line of Dutch comedian comedy, Richy W. Craig has an original offering with his answering phonograph and he stirs up the risibilities of his hearers all the the risibilities of his hearers all the time he has the center of the stage. Small, Sloan & Sheridan are seen and heard in one of the best musical comedy sketches that has been at the theater. There is a little plot involving a marriage for money, which after all turns out to be for love. Miss Florry Sloan and Ben Small produce a mediey that is worth hearing, and Bert Sheridan has a solo, Just Like the Rose, that gets a good hand.

An attractive line of moving pictures is a strong part of the bill at this popular house for this week.

FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE. Appropriate Exercises Held in the Schools About the City.

Flag day was appropriately observed on Monday in most of the schools about the city. There were patriotic exercises and the display of Old Glory, while the salute to the flag was given by the schools, and they were given a history of the flag and incidents of devotion to one's country.

There was a general display of flags about the city, every flagpole and stick being put into use on Monday, while many hung flags from the porches or windows.

New Flag Received. Sedgwick post of the G. A. R. re-ceived its new fing from Commander Stetson just in time for Flag day, and Quartermaster Sergeant Stocking had the bunting flying from the flagstaff
